RE: Engineer William R. Slone, II (EQAL-2001-24)

Dear Ms. Richardson:

This correspondence is in response to the letter dated April 20, 2001 from Ms. Brigitte Hunsaker, Manager – Engineer Certification & Licensing, Union Pacific Railroad Company, concerning the Petition submitted on behalf of Engineer William R. Slone, II, as referenced.

Enclosed please a copy of the overnight UPS Shipping Document to the Docket Clerk, Office of Chief Counsel, Federal Railroad Administration located at 400 Seventh St., SW, Washington, D.C. 20590. This copy includes a hand-written note of the date, time and name of person who received this package (information provided by UPS), which clearly shows the LERB Appeal package was received within the time limit.

Your assistance in correcting this matter will be greatly appreciated. With kind regards, I remain.

Sincerely,

Gil L. Gore
General Chairman
BLE-UP Southern Region

Enclosure

cc: Brigitte Hunsaker, Manager, w/encl.

Unless a greater value is recorded in writing on this receipt, the shipper agrees that the released value of each package covered by this receipt is $100, which is a reasonable value under the circumstances surrounding the transportation. The shipper agrees to accept the maximum value per package is $20,000, except for packages shipped via a UPS Letter Center, in which case the maximum value is $500 per package. The maximum liability per package assumed by UPS will not exceed $100, regardless of the purchase of insurance or protection in excess of $100. The maximum liability per package assumed by the applicable insurance company shall not exceed $50,000 (less $100), except for packages shipped via a UPS Letter Center, in which case the maximum liability per package assumed by the applicable insurance company shall not exceed $20,000 (less $100), regardless of the value in excess of the maximum.
